Form of Bequest to the "Charity Fund" and to the "Local Church Extension and General Benevolence Fund"

As shown in the Annual Report of the Treasurer, the Board of Trustees have made the Commonwealth Guarantee Trust and Safe Deposit Company the Trustee of the Church for the care of all invested funds. They have deposited with the said Trustee all of the moneys now belonging to the "Charity Fund" ($2,000), and also that belonging to the "Local Church Extension and General Benevolence Fund" ($8,100), and will expend only the annual earnings of interest for the benefit of the causes named, and to supplement the usual contributions thereto.

It is the desire of the Board of Trustees to increase the principal of these trust funds, and to this end they invite the attention of the members of the Church to the worthiness of the objects named. To assist any one who may be inclined to make a bequest to the Church, to be used in the aid of either "Charity" or "Local Church Extension and General Benevolence," the following form of devisement is given, viz.:

> "I give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, of Harrisburg, Pa., the sum of dollars for the 'Charity Fund' (or the 'Local Church Extension and General Benevolence Fund,' or for both, as may be selected)."

All such bequests will be placed in the custody of the Trustee of the invested funds of the Church.

H. B. MITCHELL.

MEMORIAL WINDOW

The beautiful window recently placed over the gallery of the south side of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Harrisburg, Pa., by Mr. John I. Beggs and his daughter, Miss Mary Grace Beggs, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, as a memorial to Sue Elizabeth Beggs, was executed by the Tiffany Studios of New York, from a design by Mr. Frederick Wilson.

There are three large openings under the center. On a panel in the lower part of the center opening is the following inscription:

In Memory of
Sue Elizabeth Beggs
Wife of
John Irbin Beggs
1847 1902

Under the right opening, the text, "The memory of the just is blessed."—Proverbs 10, 7.

The subject represents that most interesting theme, The Ascension, the crowning act in the life of Christ, which can be epitomized as follows: The Lord having given His charge to the apostles to preach His gospel to every creature, lifting up His hands, He blessed them, and it came to pass whilst He blessed them, He departed from them, and while they looked on Him, He was raised up and a cloud received Him out of their sight, and He was carried up to heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God.

The window is built very much on the lines of tradition, but, at the same time, the artist has given an individuality to each one of the figures that appeals directly to the spectator, making him feel that although the theme is old, yet in this window it is a new and most interesting story. The figure of the Lord is extremely beautiful; the pose is suggestive of the power and glory of the Incarnate God. To attempt to describe the color composition would be impossible; the eye alone can appreciate its wonderful magnificence, which in beauty rivals, if it does not surpass, the far-famed windows of the middle ages.

PULPIT AND FONT

A beautiful Pulpit and a Baptismal Font in the early Gothic style have been completed by the Tiffany Studios of New York. These were specially designed for the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, Harrisburg, Pa. They are made of Serpentine Marble inlaid with mosaic, in harmonious tones of reds, greens and yellows, enriched with Mother-of-Pearl. The bowl of the Font is about 23½ inches in diameter, and is hollowed out of a solid piece of marble, and, with the exception of three raised cherub heads, is of very simple design. The upper part of the Font is supported by three octagonal mosaic columns joined together, emblematic of the Trinity. The base is a block of marble about 22 inches square and 5 inches high, on one side of which is placed a bronze tablet bearing the following inscription in raised letters:

In Memory of David Herr Ross
1832 1898

The Font was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ross

The Pulpit, which was the gift of Mrs. T. De Witt Talmage, Washington, D. C., widow of Rev. Dr. T. De Witt Talmage, is made from the same kind of marble, and ornamented with mosaic of the same general coloring and design as used in the Font. While not large or massive, it is very substantial and artistic in appearance, being 40 inches high and 45 inches wide, and has a depth of 28 inches. On the speaker's left is placed an electric reading lamp, with a shade of Tiffany Favrile Glass, the metal work being stained to correspond with the general color of the pulpit. There is a marble shelf about midway between the top and the floor for books and papers. On the front of the Pulpit is a cross inlaid in mosaic and framed in a border of the same material. There are, also, panels on the sides formed by mosaic bands. In each of the front corners are octagonal columns, on each face of which is placed a mosaic panel. At the base of the Pulpit on the speaker's right there is a bronze tablet with the following inscription in raised letters:

In Memory of T. De Witt Talmage
Preacher and Lecturer
Christ heard here

Just to the left of the tablet, carved in the marble itself, are the figures "1903."

CALDER MEMORIAL ORGAN

In May, 1884, the Calder Memorial Organ was presented to the Church by the family of the late WILLIAM CALDER, in his memory. It bears the following inscription :

In Memory of William Calder, erected by his Family, 1884

"He will joy over thee with singing"

And now, in May, 1903, having been greatly enlarged and improved, is, in its new form, further dedicated to the memory of REGINA C. CALDER, and bears the following inscription :

This Organ enlarged In Memory of Regina C. Calder widow of William Calder, 1902
